

ECOSYSTEM SERVICES

What is an ecosystem?

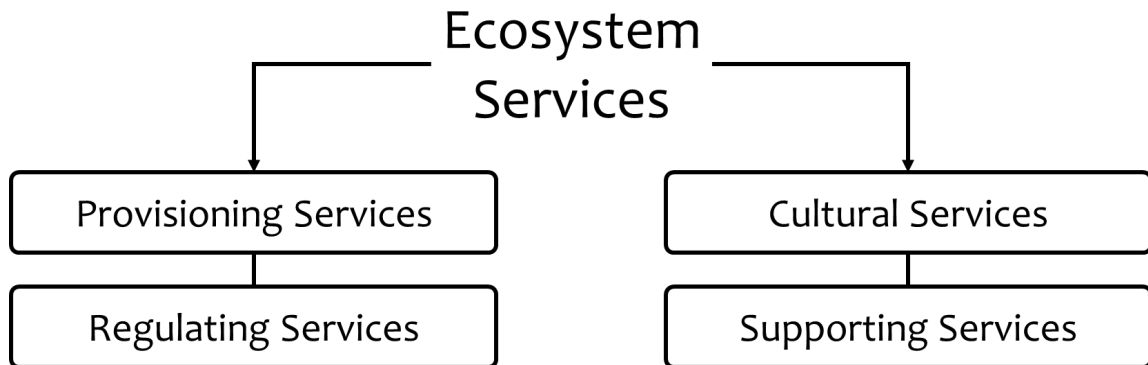

the complex of living organisms, their physical environment, and all their interrelationships in a particular unit of space.

– Britannica

What are ecosystem services?

the benefits people obtain from ecosystems

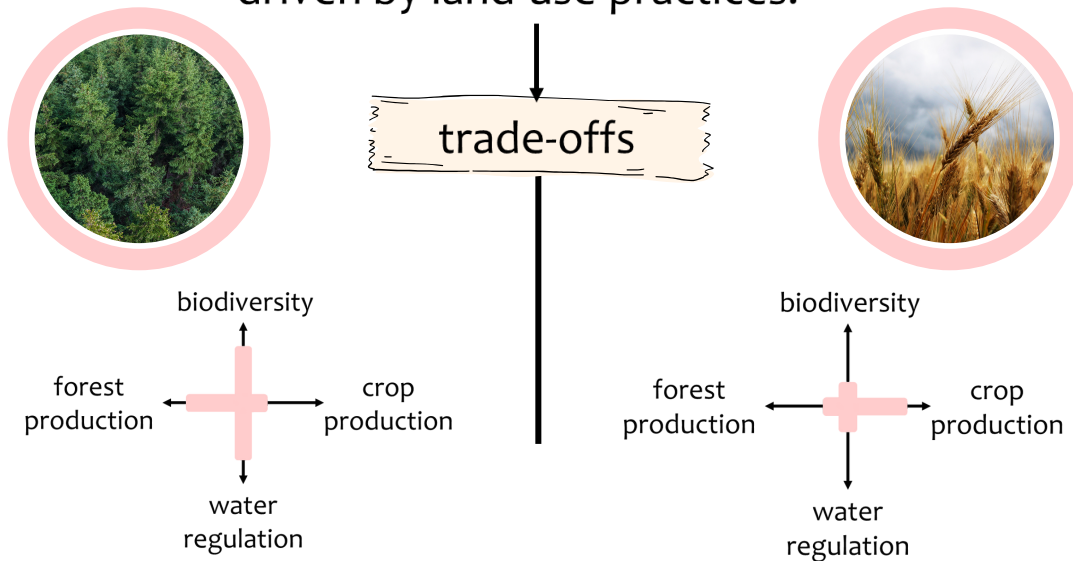

Did you know?

For the entire biosphere, the value of ecosystem services is estimated to be 33 trillion dollars per year.

How do we obtain benefit from nature?

Ecosystem services are mainly driven by land-use practices.

How can we decide on which services to receive?

What are the drivers that change ecosystem services?

- Climate change
- Policy change
- Global market change

Change Ecosystem Services

nature's contribution to people

~~ecosystem services~~

Is there a significant difference between the terms ecosystem services and nature's contribution to people?

